Compensation Commissioner Donahue Speaks to Men's Meeting at St. Andrew's Guild Room.

Monday evening there was a men's meeting in the guild room of St. Andrew's church at 8 o'clock. There were addresses by Dr. J. J. Donahue, who spoke on the Workmen's Compensation act and James L. Carter, who also spoke on the Workmen's Compensation act. The Compensation act which was passed at the 1913 legislature, is of vital importance to every man and Dr. Donahue, who is a member of the commission, is thoroughly familiar with its many features and his talk proved of great benefit. A discussion on the subject followed after which cigars, "sinters" and coffee were served.

THREE CASES FOR SUPERIOR COURT

Alleged Chicken Thief Was Presented in Norwich Police Court—Trail of Blood Led to His House—Two Fighting Women Bound Over From New London Police Court.

One case from Norwich for the superior court and two from New London resulted from trials in the police courts in the two cities on Monday.

From the Norwich police court Charles Jackson was bound over to the superior court on the charge of chicken stealing, and from the New London court two women who were fighting were bound over to the superior court.

Charles Jackson was arrested Monday morning about 3:30 o'clock at his home at No. 54 Fountain street after the police had received a complaint of chicken stealing and had followed a trail of blood from the chicken coop of Mrs. Mary E. Johnson at No. 24 John street to the home of Jackson on Fountain street. The trail of blood led to the stairs of the Jackson house.

The arrest was made by Sergeant A.
C. Matthews and Policeman T. J. Driscoll. Jackson was found in bed, and his trousers, coat and shoes had blood on them and there were chicken feathers sticking to his shoes.

He denied having stolen any chicken and said he could not tell where any, and none were found.

In the police court he was bound over to the superior court. Bonds were fixed at $300 by Judge T. J. Kelly, which the accused now must furnish, and he went to jail.

About 11 o'clock Sunday night two women who live in the lower part of the Wilson house told Mrs. Wilson that they saw a man go into the hen-coop and come out again with something under his coat and go away in the direction of Fountain street. When she looked in the coop five chickens were gone.

It was a bright moonlight night and the women said the man was tall and wore dark clothes and a cap.

In denying the charge, Jackson said he had been visiting a man in Pozrah on Sunday and came home late and had been drinking and knew little of what he did on Sunday night. He was sure he did not steal the chickens.

Policeman Driscoll saw Jackson several times late on Sunday night, and the first time the man was in the yard of his house vomiting and he said he had been drinking.

The police did some good work in picking up the clues that they had and following the trail of blood.

From New London Court.

Sarah Menghi and Ida Carrino were bound over to the superior court by Police Judge Crandall in New London Monday morning when charged with assaulting each other on Dec. 10.

The women, who live in New London, quarreled over a small wagon full of kindling for the past few years is continuing this year, and already contracts have been let and several contracts started there. Last week F.
W. Lord of New York City was contracting for a summer cottage for himself which will be the largest at the Point, and will take all the available carpenter hands to finish by the beginning of summer, as the plans call for a cottage with 115 foot frontage.

During the past year all the old cottage has been rapidly finished. It was bought by New York parties and either torn down or two or three of them put together for one large house which penches heavily on the land. The new house along the Sound, which is on the new road through the Bond farm to the new macadam road is being rapidly finished. It is a large amount of stone is dumped there this road will be of little use, owing to the damp soil there.

The town two years ago voted to appropriate $500 to lay out this road, and now that it is laid out the Black Point people have a chance to stone it and in shape to compare the fine cottages there. As this road has never been dedicated to the town it is up to the individual interests there to fix it.

New York Owners to Have Big Cottage

The building boom which has been going on at the Black Point summer cottage for the past few years is continuing this year, and already con-

NOT TO REROUTE
FEDERAL EXPRESS
Railroad Officials Make Denial of Rumor That Was Circulated.

Official denial of the report that a Federal express, which afford a through service between New London and Washington and some intermediate points, would be rerouted so that they would not touch New Haven, was issued by the New Haven railroad Saturday. The report for years has been operated through New London and carries a deal of traffic between New Haven and Washington. Until a short time ago it was operated by way of Hartford. Now, the train is operated by way of Danbury, thence to 4 Southbury and over the bridge and down the west side of the river to the report had it that the Federal would run over the Central New England, the old Midland and Highland divisions of the New Haven road, and would make a stop at Hartford, but would cut out New Haven as a train stop. The officials of the company made a statement that there is to be no change in the route of the train, however, and this valued service will not be lost to this section.

RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

It's Me For Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.
Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them.

Superintendent and Matron Will Be Glad to Have Articles Sent for It.

Supt. J. B. Chapman and Mrs. J. B.
Chapman, the matron of the almshouse, are planning to give the inmates of the almshouse a Christmas tree on Christmas eve, and if there is anyone who has relatives or friends there that would like to send them presents for the tree it would be very acceptable. Those who are requested that articles be sent by Dec. 24. They will be received at the superintendent's office with many thanks.

Pleading to give and to receive.
That is what a suitable Christmas
